

FOREWORD

Dr. Mukunda Mishra
Vice Principal, Dr. Meghnad Saha College
& Managing & Publishing Editor, ENSEMBLE

The pandemic outbreak of COVID-19 has undoubtedly put huge impacts on almost every spheres of lives & livelihoods. I am pleased that ENSEMBLE succeeds in publishing this Second Issue of the Second Volume amidst these multiple restrictions. However, there is an unintentional delay for which I must regret.

We dreamed of a common platform to portray our researched facts, to exchange our views from the lens of different philosophies. These objectives set the path of launching a journal entitled, 'ENSEMBLE' to principally work for academic solidarity. Sincere cooperation from the scholarly world has facilitated the journal to grow. I think that this growth is impeccable when I consider a long list of constraints at its primary stage. My heartfelt recognition goes collectively to all of the Authors, Readers, Members of the Publishing Support Teams, Web Consultant, and all others without whose active support in different aspects this volume would not have seen the light of day.

As the Managing & Publishing Editor, I must express the most profound sense of thankfulness to the Empowered Committee of the UGC CARE for enlisting ENSEMBLE in the UGC CARE List of Referred Journals. I am indebted to Professor Anil Bhumali, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Raiganj University; Professor Shanti Chhetry, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, University of Gour Banga and, Dr. Subrata Saha, Administrator, Dr. Meghnad Saha College for making all these things possible. I am thankful to Hon'ble Editorial Advisors for guiding us in sprinting along the right track.

In this volume, we have received a good number of research articles. ENSEMBLE strictly follows the double-blind peer-review process. The Reviewers, who are the academicians from different Colleges and Universities, have extended their enormous supports to maintain the quality of the publication. The impartial judgments and tireless efforts of Dr. Irien Shabnam, Editor-in-Chief; Ms. Ananya Roy Choudhury, Editor (Social Sciences); Mr. Anjan Some, Editor (Language & Humanities); Mr. Bibhas Mondal, Editor (Science) and Md. Yusuf Azim, Joint Managing Editor have ensured the academic excellence of ENSEMBLE.

I do extend my sincere thanks to all the Authors who have submitted their works for consideration. Each volume has a limitation of printable space. We have prioritized the sustenance of quality and useful commentary on relevant issues in selecting the articles. ENSEMBLE is a fresco of intellectual and innovative thoughts, and we are always committed to being the same.

I do hope the readers will find this volume useful.
